On board, the magic of art permeates the mood.

Costa Favolosa's treasures are liberally sprinkled throughout the ship, in a unique crescendo of artistic elegance. There are over 400 original works and 6,000+ reproductions dedicated to such masterpieces as the Hall of Mirrors from the Palace of Versailles or the Imperial Palace in the Forbidden City of Beijing. Pieces by young international talents from Milan's Accademia di Belle Arti di Brera mingle with opuses by today's most celebrated names, to create spellbinding ambiences in the ship's most magical settings and give guests a real voyage within a voyage, to discover all the beauty of the arts.

These technology services are always available:

- Interactive totems – to book excursions and the 4D Cinema, to book tables at the Club Fascinosa and Samsara restaurants, to see what's on today, to check your CostaClub points tally, and for many other services.

- Wi-Fi – wireless internet is available throughout the ship from your own PC, tablet or smartphone.
- Internet Point – a private area with a satellite web link and plenty of PCs to connect from.
- Interactive screens – to see where all the ships in the Costa fleet are and watch live via webcam.

WELLNESS AND BEAUTY

The most sumptuous and elegant spa of them all is right here – Samsara is a real idyll, with sublime sea views from the highest decks on board. Specially created for guests seeking a holiday experience in complete harmony of body and spirit, this 6,000-square-metre (65,000-sq-ft) facility offers exclusive, world-class treatments in supreme comfort, from highly qualified staff well-versed in the ancient arts and modern science of beauty. It is an enchanted, private realm.

The Ayurvedic philosophy of balancing the 3 fundamental elements – air, earth and fire – suffuses all the guest treatments on Costa Favolosa, from age-old traditions to top professional innovations in pursuit of total regeneration for your face and body.

The Thalassotherapy pool, the Tridosha sanctuary and the Temple of Peace will welcome you to a whole new dimension of wellness.

Meanwhile, the Venus Beauty Salon has everything you could possibly want to bring out all your natural beauty, while the gym will help you regain flexibility and balance through our Pilates and yoga courses. It all adds up to one amazing voyage into a world of harmony.

Kids and teens – it's impossible to get bored on board

Three clubs for different age groups to enjoy themselves in a safe environment with friends and entertainers, a 2-level Water Park for lazy afternoons of sunshine and splashes, the sports centre for super-exciting challenges ... Costa Favolosa has everything youngsters need for a perfect holiday. The Squok Club is dedicated to the little ones, while their big brothers and sisters enjoy themselves in sports competitions, pool parties and the Teen Zone, a great place to have fun and meet new friends.

CABINS AND SUITES

Costa Favolosa cabins are designed to welcome each guest in an ambience tailored to their desires. Simply select the category you prefer from the various options – all come with private bathroom with shower, independent air conditioning, interactive satellite TV for booking on-board services, satellite telephone, chilled minibar, safe and hairdryer. Breakfast can be served in your cabin, while room service is available 24 hours a day.

And if you wish to reserve yourself a truly exceptional pied-à-'terre' for your holiday, with more space and a separate day area, you can choose a Mini Suite, Suite or Grand Suite – priority boarding, a dedicated butler, dinner in your room, exclusive hydromassage, and a pillow menu are just some of the superior style details to add that little extra to your stay.
